

CarbondALE Brew Fest is featuring the 2nd Home Brew Competition sponsored by Southern Illinois Brewers, in 2019. Judging will take place at SIU Fermentation Science Institute with an awards ceremony at the Fest on May 3rd, 2019.

Our home brew competition is sanctioned by American Homebrewers Association and the Beer Judge Certification Program.

Entries will be thoughtfully judged by BJCP-certified judges, professional brewers and other professionals in the field. Participation in the home brew competition is available to all amateur adult home brewers and is open to all styles and substyles of beer in BJCP categories 1-34 of the 2015 BJCP Guidelines (see the BJCP website for more information on these categories.) Mead and cider entries are not eligible.

COMPETITION RULES

- 1. Submit two 10-14 ounce bottles with no distinguishing marks on the bottle or cap. Blacked-out caps are acceptable.
- 2. Entrant Information Form: Please complete this form ONE TIME ONLY for each entrant. No club affiliation is necessary to enter. If you submit multiple beers, you will need to fill out a form for each of the beers (e.g., 4 beers, 4 forms).
- 3. Entry Listing Form: Only one Entrant Info form per person is needed, but use additional copies of the Entry List if needed to list all of your entries. Please include any additional notes that are required by BJCP guidelines for styles 6D, 16E, 17F, 20, 21, 22B, 22C, 25C, 26A, 27E, and 28B-D. See BJCP style guidelines for the specific requirements.
- 4. Bottle Labels: Cut out the bottle labels and affix a Bottle Label with the requisite information to each bottle with rubber band(s) – do not use tape. Be sure to include the Entry Number, the BJCP category code (e.g. 2B for Bohemian Pilsner), the Style Name, and any additional information needed. Please ensure that the information on the Bottle Label is complete and matches that on the Entry Listing and Entrant Information Forms. There is no limit on the number of entries an individual may submit, but only one entry per sub-category will be allowed. Copy the Bottle Labels page as needed.
